Signing the form for someone else

You can fill in the form for someone else, but they must still sign themselves unless:

- you have already been legally appointed to receive and deal with their benefits. That is, you are a benefit appointee, a Controller appointed by the Department of Justice or hold a Power of Attorney,
- the person you are claiming for is too ill or disabled to claim for themselves and you want to be appointed to receive and deal with their benefits, or
- you are claiming for them under the Special Rules for End of Life.

16 Are you signing the form for someone else?

No Go to Nationality

Yes

17 Why are you signing the form for them?

I am an appointee
Appointed by DfC.

I hold Power of Attorney

I am a Controller appointed by the Department of Justice

I am a Corporate Acting Body or
Corporate Appointee

For example, an organisation appointed to act on behalf of person the benefit is for such as a Health and Social Care Trust, or firm of solicitors.

Tell us the name of your organisation.

Unless we have already seen this authority, we will need to see it before we can process this claim. Please send us your power of attorney or any relevant documents with this claim. You can send the original document, or a certified copy.

18 Do you want to be appointed to act on their behalf?

This could be because:

- the person you are claiming for is too ill or disabled to claim for themselves and you want to be appointed to handle their benefit affairs, or
- you are in the process of becoming a legally appointed representative.

No

Yes

We will contact you about this.

19 Are you claiming for them under the Special Rules for End of Life?

The special rules for people nearing the end of life are for people with a progressive disease who are not expected to live for longer than 12 months. You may wish to tell the person the benefit is for, about this claim. This is because we will send letters about Personal Independence Payment to this person.

Sharing information about your health condition.

Any information that we ask you for is necessary to enable the Department for Communities to carry out its official duties. The legal basis for the request is UK GDPR Article 6(1)(e) and Article 9(2)(b) for special category information.

Further health or social care professional that supports you

Please tell us if there is another health or social care professional or someone else we can contact who can tell us about your health condition or disability. For example:

- community psychiatric nurse
- occupational therapist
- physiotherapist
- support worker
- social worker
- counsellor
- carer
- family member, or
- friend.

How we pay you

We ask for your account details before we decide on a claim so we can pay you straight away if you qualify for benefit. This does not guarantee that you will get Personal Independence Payment.

You must read the information in the letter we sent with this form before you fill in the account details.

Please tell us the account details

It is very important you fill in all the boxes correctly, including the building society roll or reference number, if you have one. If you tell us the wrong account details your payment may be delayed or you may lose money.

You can find the account details on your chequebook or bank statements. If you are not sure about the details, ask the bank or building society.

69 Name of the account holder

Please write the name of the account holder exactly as it is shown on the debit card, chequebook or statement.

70 Name of the bank or building society

71 Sort code

Please tell us all 6 numbers, for example: 12-34-56.

72 Account number

Most account numbers are 8 numbers long. If your account number has fewer than 10 numbers, please fill in the numbers from the left.

73 Building society roll or reference number

If you are using a building society account you may need to tell us a roll or reference number. This may be a mix of letters and numbers, and may be up to 18 characters long. If you are not sure if the account has a roll or reference number, ask the building society.

Special Rules for End of Life

Only answer questions 74 to 78 if you are claiming under the Special Rules for End of Life.

You may be able to get the mobility component of Personal Independence Payment if you have difficulty moving or need help getting around.

It is important that you send us an SR1 form to support your claim if you have not sent one for your PIP claim or any other benefit in the last 12 months. The SR1 is a report about your medical condition. You will not have to pay for it. You can ask the doctor's receptionist, a nurse or a social worker to arrange it for you. You do not have to see the doctor. Your doctor or specialist can send it to us for you.

74 Are you going to send us an SR1 to support your claim?

Do not know

No

Yes

Do not wait until you have got the SR1. Please continue with your claim. It will be helpful if you send the SR1 back to us within the next 5 days.

The next stage of claiming

If you have not claimed under the Special Rules for people nearing the end of life.

The next stage of claiming Personal Independence Payment will start when we send you another form through the post so you can tell us how your condition affects you. You need to fill in the form and send it back to us.

If you think you will need any help or support to fill in the form, contact a local support organisation as soon as possible to arrange help.

79 Are you signing this form for yourself?

No

Yes

80 Would you normally need someone to help you complete forms and understand letters?

No Go to question 81

Yes

Who will you ask to help you?

For example:

- a family member
- friend
- neighbour
- support worker, or
- local support organisation such as a local advisory service and other similar advice organisations.

Please ask them to help you fill in the form as soon as possible.

81 Do you have a mental health condition or a condition that causes you significant difficulties remembering things, learning new things, or making everyday decisions?

For example, you may have a condition such as:

- mental health condition
- behavioural condition
- learning disability
- developmental disorder, or
- dementia or other conditions affecting memory.

No

If your needs change, you can let us know at any time.

Yes

We will be sending you a 'How your disability affects you' form so you can tell us how your disability or health condition affects you. We will also be contacting you throughout the application process. Therefore, we want to understand whether you may have any significant difficulty communicating with us.

82 Are you able to complete forms?

Disability Living Allowance (DLA)

85 Are you getting DLA, or have you ever been awarded DLA?

No Go to The Motability Scheme

Yes

PIP is a new benefit for you, and we will be asking you to send us any supporting information about how your condition affects you.

86 Would you like us to also use any medical evidence we still hold from your previous DLA claim?

This evidence could be a report from:

- a GP
- hospital
- school, or
- other health or social care professional.

If you have had a medical examination for DLA we could use the report from the examining medical practitioner (EMP). If an Employment and Support Allowance report was used to support your DLA claim we could use this report.

No

We will just use the information that you send us with your form to help us make our decision. If DLA medical evidence is held, it may still be used at a future point during your claim.

Yes

We will obtain your DLA file and ensure any medical evidence we still hold is taken into account.

The Motability Scheme

The Motability Scheme allows disabled people to lease a car, scooter or powered wheelchair in exchange for all or some of their mobility payments.

87 If you are eligible to join the Motability Scheme would you like us to post you information about the help they can offer you?

We will not share your personal details with Motability.

No

Yes

If you decide you do not want to receive information about Motability in the future, please contact us on 0800 587 0952 to let us know.

Other information

88 Please use this space to tell us anything else you think we might need to know

If there is not enough space, please use a separate sheet of paper.

Make sure that you:

- put your full name and National Insurance number on each sheet of paper, and
- sign and date each sheet that you use.

What to do now

Check that you have answered all the questions that apply to you.

Read the information we sent with this form. It tells you about how we collect and use information and where to go for help and advice about this and other benefits.

Now read and sign the Declaration.

Declaration

We cannot pay any benefit until you have signed the declaration and returned the form to us.

Please return the signed form straightaway.

I declare that the information I have given on this form is correct and complete as far as I know and believe.

I understand that if I knowingly give false information, my benefit may be stopped and I may be liable to prosecution or other action.

I understand that I must promptly tell the office that pays my Personal Independence Payment of anything that may affect my entitlement to, or the amount of, that benefit.

I understand that the Department for Communities may use the information which it has now or may get in the future to decide whether I am entitled to:

- the benefit I am claiming
- any other benefit I have claimed
- any other benefit I may claim or be awarded in the future.

89	This is my claim for Personal Independence Payment

	Date DD/MM/YYYY

What happens next

If you are sent the claim form How your disability affects you, you will need to complete the form and return it with copies of supporting information that explains how your health condition or disability affects you carrying out day-to-day activities.

By supporting information, we mean things like:

- social care plans
- reports from health professionals
- prescription lists
- test results
- statements from carers or family members.

Please only send copies, not originals.

The date to return everything by will be printed on the front of the How your disability affects you form.

Arrange any help you need to complete the form or collect your supporting information now, because we may end your claim if it is not returned in time.

If you require extra time to provide further evidence, please contact us on 0800 587 0932.

Additional evidence to support your claim can be important and may help us make a decision on your claim.

Once we receive your How your disability affects you form you may need to have an assessment. It is important you attend this assessment otherwise your claim may be stopped.

You can ask for your assessment to be recorded. To do this please contact the health assessor when you receive your appointment. After your appointment you will receive a link to your recording by text message or email.

the person who has completed the form has signed the declaration on page 18

How DfC collects and uses information

The information the Department for Communities (DfC) collects from and about you depends mainly on the reason for your business with us.

We will use information about you for all of the Department's purposes, which include:

- The payment of social security benefits, grants, loans and pensions
- Child Maintenance
- Employment and Training
- Investigation of offences relating to social security
- Social Security Research and Statistics.

DfC uses information to deal with enquiries and complaints, to provide DfC services, to protect public funds, and to conduct research and produce statistics to monitor and improve our services.

We will obtain information about you as the law allows from other organisations to check the information you give to us, protect public funds, and to improve our services.

DfC also shares information with other organisations as the law allows, for example to protect against crime, and with HM Revenue and Customs.

DfC uses external suppliers to help deliver some services. We also use technology to make decisions and improve our services. We will only ask you for information about your health when this is needed for a benefit or service you are using. We will keep your information secure, and make sure nobody has access to it who should not.

Please look at the DfC Privacy Notice on www.communities-ni.gov.uk/privacy-notice to find out more about:

- your information rights
- how to request a copy of your information
- DfC's data controller details and other data protection information
- how long DfC will keep your data for; and
- more detail about how DfC uses personal information.
